H. E. (Eric) Schockman Appointed to the California Postsecondary Education Commission

SACRAMENTO — March 23, 2007 — Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger has appointed a new member to the California Postsecondary Education Commission. He is H.E. (Eric) Schockman of Sherman Oaks. Mr. Schockman serves as president of the non-profit public foundation, MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger since 2000. Mr. Schockman previously served as associate dean and associate professor in the political science department at the University of Southern California from 1990 to 2000. Prior to that, he served as executive director of the Edmund G. “Pat” Brown Institute for Public Affairs from 1988 to 1990. Mr. Schockman also served as associate director of the Center for Multiethnic and Transnational Studies at the University of Southern California from 1988 to 2000.

The California Postsecondary Education Commission advises the Governor and Legislature on higher education policy and fiscal issues. The Commission’s primary focus is to ensure that the state’s educational resources are used effectively to provide Californians with postsecondary education opportunities.
